AARON HAKIMIAN

Owner of Rugs America

With over 40 years of experience in product development, production, importing, and wholesale distribution, the Hakimian's were established home textile authorities when Rugs America was founded in 1994. Initially starting with a limited rug selection and inventory, their business acumen allowed them to strategically navigate the ever-changing industry.

Each year the company steadily grew, and in 2003, the founder's son Aaron Hakimian joined the business. His fresh eyes and entrepreneurial insight gave him an edge in establishing new partnerships, and now Rugs America offers hundreds of designs and operates out of three warehouses. Today, Aaron is the president of the entire operation and oversees everything from manufacturing to sales to marketing to logistics.

As a leader in area rug and bathmat distribution, Rugs America offers home fashions through various retail channels such as department stores, ecommerce retailers, furniture specialty stores, mass market stores, and off-price retail chains, Rugs America products can be found across the US, Canada, Mexico, Europe, and UK.
